

Oryx

NOVEMBER 2009 THE INFLIGHT MAGAZINE

■ Double-crosser

Matt Damon turns informer

■ Austria's Wörthersee

A freshwater fairyland

■ Foot the bill

The latest shoe fads

Kuala Lumpur

A LEADING LIGHT

WORDS IRISH MAE SILVESTRE
PHOTOGRAPHY BAHR AL-ALUM KARIM

Bookmark

This month's best sellers, hardcovers and page turners

BOOKS COURTESY OF BORDERS

BOBBI BROWN MAKEUP MANUAL

Bobbi Brown (SPRINGBOARD PRESS)

Filled with insider tips from the pro, it's an illustrated and easy-to-follow guide to putting your best face forward. Handy tip: since under-eye skin colour changes regularly, it's worth experimenting with two to four shades of concealer.*

BEAUTIFUL WITHIN

Mica Paris (SIMON & SCHUSTER)

Having grown up in the spotlight, TV presenter, Mica Paris knows a thing or two about women and body issues. Honest and conversational, Paris aims to empower women by helping them find happiness beyond the digits on the weighing scale.

BERLIN

Photographs by Stefan Dauth (TENEUES)

When the anniversary of the fall of the wall hits in the first week of November, Berlin will come to life with the Festival of Freedom, running from November 7 to 9 on both sides of the Brandenburg Gate. See this historical city through the lens of photographer Stefan Dauth.

THE STORY OF THE WORLD CUP

Brian Glanville (FABER AND FABER)

Whether it's a look at Maradona's World Cup career or lesser-known facts, such as Franz Beckenhauer's 1977 departure from Bayern Munich, which was disastrous for the team, The Story of the World Cup is packed with fascinating footie trivia.

THE SAND FISH

Maha Gargash (HARPER PAPERBACKS)

Dubai-based scriptwriter, Maha Gargash follows the life of 17-year old Noora, who sees no escape from her future. Trapped in an arranged marriage as a third wife, Noora meets a stranger whose presence threatens to turn the only world she's ever known upside down.

